UC Berkeley Labor Center and the Bay Area Black Worker Center present:

2016 C.L. Dellums Leadership School

Dates: Saturday, March 19, April 2, April 16, and April 30
Time: 9 AM–3 PM
Location: UC Berkeley Labor Center
          2521 Channing Way
          Berkeley, CA 94720
Cost: $290 (includes light breakfast, lunch, instruction, parking, and all workshop materials)

Application Deadline is Tuesday, March 1, 2016

For more information, please contact:
Steven Pitts, spitts1@berkeley.edu, (510) 643-6815
Danielle Mahones, danielle.mahones@berkeley.edu, (510) 642-6811

Name:  Title:
Organization:  E-mail:
Work phone:  Cell:
Mailing address:

Please answer the following questions so we can better understand your experiences. Note: lack of experience does NOT disqualify a potential workshop participant.

1) What is your current role in your organization?

2) How long have you been at your current role in your organization?
3) Please explain a current campaign you are working on with your organization.

4) How have you been impacted by the Black jobs crisis and/or mass incarceration?

5) What do you hope to gain from your participation in the C.L. Dellums Leadership School?

Please list any food restrictions you might have:

Please list any special accommodations you might need:

Any other questions or comments:

Participants will be selected after an application and interview process.
Registration Deadline: Friday, February 19, 2016
Interview Selections by March 3, 2016 – or sooner
Selection Notification: Friday, March 4, 2016

Please mail, fax or e-mail applications to:
Attn: Steven Pitts/Clementina Jara, UC Berkeley Labor Center
2521 Channing Way, Berkeley, CA, 94720
Scan & e-mail: spitts1@berkeley.edu, zenaida@berkeley.edu
Or fax: 510-642-6432

The 2016 C.L. Dellums Leadership School welcomes participation from people of all races, ethnicities, national origins, and gender identities.