

UC Berkeley Labor Center presents:

STUDENT EVENT CALENDAR

Spring 2019

FEB.

6 2019

Labor Regimes of Indenture: A Global Overview of Migrant Domestic Work

Wednesday, Feb 6, 2019, 12-1:30pm
554 Barrows Hall, UC Berkeley
A Talk by Prof. Rhacel Parreñas, Sociology and Gender & Sexuality Studies, USC

FEB.

15 2019

UC Berkeley Labor Center Information Session: Labor and Climate Policy

Friday, Feb 15, 2019, 12-2pm
Room 250 GSPP West (1893 LeRoy Ave)
Learn how unions & environmental justice groups can work together to ensure that public policy advances equity in California climate policy

FEB.

20 2019

Documentary Film Screening: City Rising

Wednesday, Feb 20, 2019, 12-1:30pm
Labor Center, 2521 Channing Way
Part 1 of a 2-part documentary, City Rising, examines gentrification—its historical roots, economic role and social consequences.

FEB.

27 2019

Documentary Film Screening: City Rising: The Informal Economy

Wednesday, Feb 27, 2019, 12-1:30pm
Labor Center, 2521 Channing Way
Part 2 of a 2-part documentary, City Rising: The Informal Economy, follows four California workers organizing to find pathways for legalization and protection.

FEB.

27 2019

Art for Social Change x UCB Labor Center - Screen Printing Workshops

Wednesday, Feb 27 2019, 6:30-7:30pm
2495 Bancroft Way, Suite #220
Are you interested in making art, social justice and civic engagement? Learn about activism through screen printing! Additional studio days: March 13; March 27; April 3; April 10; April 17; April 24

FEB.

28 2019

Book Talk: From Coors to California, Dave Sickler and the New Working Class

Thursday, Feb 28, 2019, 5-7pm
Labor Center, 2521 Channing Way
David Sickler worked for fifty years as one of the most creative and successful union organizers in the country. Find out more about his breakthrough campaigns that transformed the US labor movement.

MAR.

12 2019

Dockworker Power: Race and Activism in Durban and the SF Bay Area

March 12, 2019, 4-5:30pm
Dwinelle Hall, Rm. 370
Dr. Peter Cole discusses his book - Dockworker Power. Pathbreaking research reveals how unions effected lasting change in some of the most far-reaching struggles of modern times.

APR.

1 2019

Latinx Labor in California

April 1, 2019, 12-1pm
Latinx Research Center, 2547 Channing Way
Learn how unions & environmental justice groups can work together to ensure that public policy advances equity in California climate policy

APR.

25 2019

Book Talk: Blue and Green: The Drive for Justice at America's Port

Thursday, April 25, 2019, 5:30-7pm
Labor Center, 2521 Channing Way
In his new book, Cummings shows how an unprecedented "blue-green" alliance mobilized to improve working conditions for low-income drivers and air quality in nearby communities.

MAY

2019

Art for Social Change x UCB Labor Center - May Day Art Exhibition & Reception

May 2019 Date TBD
Labor Center, 2521 Channing Way
Join us for an exhibit of art from our semester of screen printing workshops led by Art for Social Change.

UC BERKELEY
LABOR
CENTER

The Labor Center is a public service and outreach program of UC Berkeley. Our student programming, classes and internships cover topics such as income inequality, social movements, race and ethnicity dynamics in the workplace, immigration reform, wage theft, health care, the global economy, women and gender inequities, the future of work, green jobs, and retirement security. Find out more about us by visiting us online: <http://laborcenter.berkeley.edu/>

STAY CONNECTED TO THE LABOR CENTER ON SOCIAL MEDIA:

 @UCBerkeleyLaborCenter
 @UCBerkeleyLaborCenter
 @UCBLaborCenter