Have you ever organized a meeting? Researched an issue? Volunteered in your community? Taught a class? Can you imagine a better future for the working poor?

If your answer to any of these questions is “yes” or if you want to learn how to do these things, then Labor Summer is for you!

Labor Summer is a full-time, PAID, intensive eight-week educational internship program for graduate students and rising junior or senior undergraduate students. This program offers students a unique opportunity to learn from and work with labor and community organizations in Northern and Central California, applying their skills in real-world settings on issues vital to the state’s working people.

Applications are due Wednesday, February 26!

Find out more and apply: http://laborcenter.berkeley.edu/labor-summer/